

MRS. HARELL MALOY
... Beta Alpha President
(Seeman Portrait)

Trio Lodge Friendship Night Noted

Friendship Night was observed by the Trio Rebekah Lodge at its meeting July 25 with Noble Grand Bertha Fern presiding.

Representatives from 33 district as well as members from Paloma Lodge of Los Angeles, Angeles Mesa of Hawthorne, Carson, Compton and Torrance were on hand.

Introduced were distinguished guests Arthur Warr, past grand patriarch of Odd-fellow Lodge of Kenob, Utah, and his wife, Mary Warr, a district deputy president of that area; Elvira Knobs of Paloma Lodge, a past district deputy and a trustee of the Rebekah Orphanage at Gilroy.

Also, Helen Wilson, deputy of district 84 and the Noble Grands and Vice Grands of neighboring lodges.

The Kitchen Band of the Compton Lodge, directed by Mary Ann Jepson entertained. James Jepson accompanied at the piano with his son, James, on the drums.

After the meeting, guests enjoyed a musical cake walk, and refreshments were served to the 75 guests in the decorated dining room.

Tillie Van Driel was chairman for the evening assisted by Vesta Littrell, Bertha Westfall, Florence Broad, Maxine Fuller, Gertrude Kastrop and John Fuller.

Two Hostess Stork Shower

Mrs. Barbara Ruszkowski was honoree at a stork shower given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Ronald Gordon and her mother, Mrs. Al Starner at the Starner home, 1023 Greenhedge Ave.

Pink and blue umbrellas, baby toys and balloons were used in decorating.

Appropriate games were played, followed by the opening of gifts.

The pink and blue shower cake and other refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Attending the shower were Mrs. Frank Billa, mother of the honoree; Mmes. Walter Jensen, Viola Shively, George Ferlin, Leon Martin, Dick Olsen, Rupert Buckalew, Ronald Johansen, Harry Klein; Misses Cathy Ruszkowski, La Vada Hembree, and Pam Ferlin.

Unable to attend, but sending gifts, were Mmes. Matt Ruszkowski, Jack Fletcher, Sam Winstead, Bob Winstead and Bob Stuno.

Chapter Elects New Officers at Session

Mrs. Harell Maloy was elected and installed as president of Beta Alpha Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi to succeed Mrs. Robert Fenter, who resigned the position to move to her new home at Happy Valley. Mr. Fenter recently accepted a position with the Los Angeles County Fire Department in the Newhall-Saugus area.

At this special meeting, called by Mrs. Fenter in her Lomita Pines home, Mrs. Laila Dorn was elected vice-president to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Maloy.

Other officers previously installed to serve during the coming year are Mmes. Philip Murray, recording secretary; John Graham, corresponding secretary; Andy Burich, treasurer; John Fox, social chairman; Linda Anderson, historian and publicity chairman.

The new president is owner of a beauty salon in Palos Verdes Estates. Her husband is working on a degree at Long Beach State College. The couple has one daughter, Jennifer Ann, 4.

The chapter has planned a picnic at Atlantis Park in Anaheim for its "Beginning Day" activity in August.

Members and their husbands enjoyed a pool party

Grand Regent Names Chairmen for 1968-69

Mrs. Paul Labonawski, grand regent, Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, announced her chairmen for the coming year at the June business meeting.

They are Mmes. Paul DeCuir, program; Laurence Derouin, parliamentarian; George Rausch, ways and means; Louis Derouin, social service; Joseph Walker, share-the-faith; Richard Leacock, women-for-democracy; Charles Butterfield, public relations and bulletin.

Others are Mmes. Beverly Williams, Juniorette; J. W. Crew, secret pal; Laura Kuhn, Madonna Manor; Thomas Murphy, legislation; Mike O'Dowd, telephone; Elles Cook, extension; Michael Shanahan, sunshine; John McVey, education and poetry; Robert Aguilar, 50-50; Albert Moreta, grand regent's scrapbook; Laurence Derouin and Wilbur Camp, petty-cash funds; and Misses Felice and Kathryn Shaughnessy, world missions.

Standing rules of the court were reviewed and revised. The court voted to give Father Rudolph De La Cerna, chaplain, a check for $25 for his project Headstart in the Pueblo Mission and to help with the endeavor. The Junior CDA will also give hours at the project.

Plans made for the coming year include a Monte Carlo

Night; card party; Luncheon-Is-Served; and a rummage sale. The money derived from the projects help the court with its many charities.
